FAINT ECHO OF STRIKE CASES

Bill for Injunction Against Makino et Al. Dismissed by Sugar Company.

Another faint echo of the exciting "strike trials" of last summer was heard in the circuit court yesterday when the firm of Kinney, Ballou, Prosper & Anderson, on behalf of the Oahu Sugar Company, filed a discontinuance of the bill for an injunction directed against Makino, Negoro, Soga and others.

Last year, while the strike troubles were at their height, the sugar company applied for an injunction restrain-ing Makino and his companions from going upon their land or influencing possible laborers from working for the company. A temporary injunction was granted. Later Makino, Negoro, Soga, and Tasaka were convicted of conspiracy and were sentenced to jail, from which they were released a short time ago. The injunction matter, however, has been upon the calendar all this time and it was only yesterday that the matter was cleared up by its discontinuance.

Court Notes.

In the matter of Gerhard Segelken versus the Hawaiian Trust Company, administrator of the estate of Charles W. Booth, deceased, and Ida Elizabeth Hall, a decree pro confesso was yesterday ordered issued.

In the case of Kaiwi Puaiole versus John Kaukahu and Mele Hoolala, an action to set aside a deed on the ground that it was fraudulently procured, Judge Whitney yesterday decided that the evidence did not warrant the contents of the plaintiff and issued a decree in favor of the respondents.

Akama and Ah Hee, charged with unlawful intercourse, appeared before Judge Cooper yesterday, represented by J. Lightfoot, and pleaded guilty to the charge. City Attorney Cathcart made a statement to the effect that the defendants had been married to one another since the indictment was returned, and on this showing the judge suspended sentence for thirteen months.

In the case of Manuel Silva, indicted for larceny because he gathered in some of the coal from the wreck of the Helga, Attorney Douthitt on behalf of the defendant yesterday abandoned his demurrer and the defendant entered a plea of guilty.

Kim Sung In, indicted for assault with a dangerous weapon, was arraigned and his plea continued to October 10.

Gonsake Waihana, charged with burglary in the first degree, was arraigned.
The court appointed George A. Davis to defend him and continued his plea until next Monday morning.

The assumpsit action of George Alexander against Whitney & Marsh has been dismissed for want of prosecution.
Commissioner Judd yesterday afternoon dismissed Li Khai Fai, the Chinese editor who was charged with sending unmailable matter through the United States mails. Nobody appeared able to say just what the objectionable expressions in the paper meant.

Judge Robinson has granted an annulment of the marriage of Ho Hee to Chang Yook Lin, the evidence showing that at the time of the marriage the woman had another husband in China.

George A. Davis Files Another Suit for Damages Against the Schooner.

The affairs of Allain Pasquoin and the schooner David Evans continue to occupy the various courts of the Territory and there is no telling how many more moves will be made by Attorney George A. Davis in his attempts to win out over Captain Sanders.

For two days Captain Sanders was on trial in the police court before Judge Thayer on the charge of having assaulted the sailor with a dangerous weapon.
Yesterday Sanders was discharged, the charge against him having failed.

But another action has been brought, this time in the circuit court. Attorney Davis, on behalf of his sailor client, has brought another suit for damages.

Davis has also perfected his appeal to the United States Circuit Court of the Ninth Circuit. The appeal has been allowed and the bond filed.

The damage suit filed in the circuit court will not hold the schooner. She will be allowed to sail.

The Mutual Telephone Company requests that all subscribers carefully examine the temporary directory, and report, in writing, to the office on
